

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY

APPLIED – 4 QCE POINTS

OVERVIEW

- The subject Information and Communication Technology (ICT) focuses on the knowledge, understanding and skills related to engagement with information and communication technology through a variety of elective context derived from work, study and leisure environments of today.
- The subject includes core knowledge, understanding and skills relating to hardware, software and ICT in society.

YEAR 11

- IT Help Desk

- Computer hardware and software
- Animation generation using Adobe Animate/Pencil2D

- Promote My Business

- Graphic modification using Adobe Illustrator/Adobe Photoshop
- Website design using Adobe Dreamweaver/Photoshop/Premier/Notepad++

YEAR 12

- The Network

- School network system

- Open Doors

- Design and evaluate computer games/apps suitable for people with disability

ASSESSMENT

PATHWAYS

- A course of study in Information and Communication Technology can establish a basis for further education and employment in many fields especially the fields of:

- ICT operations
- Help desk
- Sales support
- Digital media support
- Office administration
- Records and data management
- Call centres

