

■ Teachers Beth Crooks, Mardi Mansfield, and deputy principal Leanne Fisher were at the ceremony.

■ The Brombal family . . . Justin, Yvonne, Joseph and Ashleigh.

Clontarf duxes named

DYLAN Adams and Frances Zewe have been named duxes at Clontarf Beach State High School's annual awards ceremony last week.

Frances also won the Beck Family Award (Beck Mining Engineering), while Dylan earned the Award for Outstanding Achievement, Sharon Alback Award and Ray Hollis award for outstanding public speaking (senior).

■ Belinda Boyce and Rachael Thrupp

■ Melissa Hollis and Kay Bartolo

■ Carissa Griffiths, Brendan Carlson

■ Frances Zewe and Dylan Adams

■ OTHER AWARD WINNERS

TAMARA Ashford took out the Year 11 gold award with silver going to Katrina Greaves.

In Year 10, Jamie Hooley and Sarah Pile tied for gold, as did Christine James and Ashleigh Brombal in Year 9.

Year 9 silver was shared by Kaylene Edwards and Zoe Ashford.

Chantal Stagg won Year 8 gold with Shane Burnett and Jarrod Brown tying for silver.

The sport prizes went to junior sportsman Zac Tung, junior sportswoman Coressa Chan, senior sportsman Ben Gledhill and senior sportswoman Melissa Feuerriegel.

Ben was also the Caltex All-Rounder.

Matthew Tiato holds the Cherry shield for rugby league, Dale Cuffe was champion swimmer while Samantha Simpson took out the G.J. Priddy Trophy for athletics.

Belinda Boyce won the Ray Hollis award for outstanding public speaking (junior).

Caitlyn Standen took out the Bolton Family Award for Social Science.

Kay Bartolo has the Teresa Gambaro Citizenship Award.

The Rats of Tobruk awards went to Jamie Hooley (junior) and Andrea Chapman (senior).

Community service and cultural awards went to Leesa Lesmeister (Year 8), Emma Edmondson (Year 9), Melissa Campney (Year 10) and Stacey Clair (Year 11).

The Bob Chapple Shield for Year 8 intra-school debating was shared by Kayleigh Whittaker, Catherine St Clair, Robert Jones and David Jordan.

The interhouse competitions were won by Leo (Margate News Agency Shield for athletics and the best overall house), Pegasus (the Bill Hunter Shield for cross country) and Orion (the P & C Trophy for swimming).